The Blue Ridge Community College Concert Series will present outstanding guitar students from the University of North Carolina School of the Arts on Tuesday, February 8 at 7:30 P.M. in Thomas Auditorium. The program is titled "Guitar Without Borders," and will include an eclectic mix of Baroque masterpieces by Bach and Weiss, dance-inspired works by Latin greats Piazzolla and Bustamante, jazz favorites by Monk and Thielemans, and much more. The performers are Marty Edwards, Payton Harkins, Ryan Layton, and Jack Rice; all are students of the eminent artist-professor Joseph Pecoraro.

Admission to the concert is $10, payable at the door; admission for all students is only $3. All concerts feature open seating. Proceeds benefit the College's Community Enrichment Program.
