

Customized Training & Business Services

For more information, call 694-1744 ♦ www.blueridge.edu

Are YOU Needing a NEW JOB? A Better Future? New Skills? To Earn More Money?

Machinists are in demand! Regional companies have announced expansions!

Our machining program provides the instruction you need to enter the job market. Earn better pay and have more opportunities.

Gain the skills to be a machinist and open the door for better pay, stability and benefits!

Machinist Training I

This hybrid course is designed to introduce the principle and concepts of machining in the work environment. Students will be introduced to machine tools, basic hand tools, measuring instruments, blueprint reading, and shop math. Students will be required to attend class as well as receive on line instruction F

MEC 8012 016 MTH 05:00PM-08:59PM 01/11-04/22
Frank Creasman SPRM 139 10.4 CEU $181.30

Outdoor Power Equipment (OPE) I

This course will teach basic principles of small engine repair, troubleshooting, diagnosing, and problem solving skills necessary for student employment in a small engine repair occupation. Training will consist of theory, operation, lubrication, repair, rebuilding, and maintenance of tools and equipment on 2 and 4 stroke engines. T

AUT 8203 032 T 06:00PM-08:59PM 01/12-05/11
William Meece TRCT 115 4.8 CEU $121.3

Welding I

This course will teach basic welding skills necessary for student employment in the welding industry. The course includes the following topics: preparing for a welding occupation, using tools to shape and cut metals, welding metals with shielded metal arc equipment, and understanding weld tests and codes. F

WLD 8122 417 F 06:00PM-08:59PM 01/08-02/26
Mark Tankersley SPRM 135 2.4 CEU $66.30

Corporate Training Institute

Join us for the Spring 2010
Human Resource
Professional Development Series

PHR/SPHR Certification Preparation

A comprehensive course designed to prepare HR managers to become certified as a Professional in Human Resources (PHR) or Senior Professional in Human Resources (SPHR) This course will be completed in time for the Spring 2010 SHRM examination. Dates to be announced.

Registration Fee: $ 1,100

HR Basics – designed for the HR assistant, administrator, or specialist.

Gain an understanding of the basic premise in administration and law. Topics include HR Principles, Compliance Issues and Management Issues. Registration Fee: $ 299

Course #: SEF 8133 002

Thursdays from 01/28-02/25 8 a.m.-12 p.m.

Training is provided by Lorraine Poe, an experienced Trainer and HR professional.

Welding II

This course will build on the basic welding skills that the student has learned in level I. The course includes the following topics: practicing welding techniques with a given welding process, such as Mig, Tig, and stick welding, using tools to shape, cut, and prepare metals for welding, and practicing for a welding test. The primary objective of this course is to prepare student with a working understanding of welding in industry or self-employment. Specific objectives include: Understand the hazards of welding; Knowledge of the different types of welding (stick, mig, tig). F

WLD 8123 517 F 06:00PM-08:59PM 03/05-05/07
Mark Tankersley SPRM 135 2.4 CEU $66.30